

retired from the company last night and will be succeeded by Stanley Hawkins.

Weber & Fields have decided on their next burlesque but "Humming Birds and Onions" and "Twirly-Whirly" will continue on their bill for several weeks longer. Fay Templeton's imitation of Ethel Barrymore will not soon be forgotten.

"Sally in Our Alley" has been a joy to the patrons of the New York Theatre, where it will remain for another week. The next attraction at this house will be "When Johnny Comes Marching Home," a Civil War opera, beginning on Tuesday, Dec. 16.

"A Country Girl" will have to leave Daly's Theatre in the fulness of its prosperity. It takes the road in New Year's week, but will return for a second season later in the winter.

Mabelle Gilman is expected to remain for a long time at the Bijou, where she is starring in "The Mocking Bird." There are several catchy songs in this comic opera, the best known being "The Sly Misses" and "What's the Matter With the Moon To-night?"

"A Chinese Honeymoon" is getting well on to its 25th American performance at the Casino, and its popularity is uniminished. The eight statueque bridesmaids are more stunning than ever in their new gowns.

Blanche Ring and Henry Conon are just beginning to sing together a comic ditty, "She Reads the New York Papers Every Day" in "Foolish Girl," at the Bijou's Bijouhouse. The two leading members of Mrs. Osborne's company put much motion into their playing, especially in their burlesque of "Iris." The Dixie sextette are wearing new costumes.

"Jane" has been selected as the second attraction at the Circa Theatre. It will be put on to-morrow night with Bijou Fernandez in the title part, wherein Johnstone Bennett was continuing renown some years ago.

Creston Clarke, supported by the members of the Donnelly stock company, will play "Hamlet" at the Murray Hill this week.

The American Theatre players will be seen this week in "The Slaves of Russia," a melodrama which is new to this city. It deals in a spirited way with the details of Ninian Intrigue.

Chas. Ogleot will bid a reluctant farewell to the Fourteenth Street Theatre at the close of this week. His engagement there in "Old Limerick Town" has been notably prosperous. Joe Welch comes out of the vanedelle to star in "The Peddler" at this theatre next week.

Andrew Mack will appear again in "Tom Moore" at the Metropolis Theatre this week. He will sing some of the poet's most lovely ballads.

"A Montana Outlaw" promises strenuous doings at the Third Avenue Theatre this week. Davis M. Hartford assumes the principal role, that of Jack the Butcher. There's a stage coach in it.

The Four Cohans in "The Governor's Son" are billed at the new West End Theatre this week. Several of the latest musical hits have been introduced in this entertainment.

One of the Proctor theatres, the Twenty-third Street, will show for the first time in New York this week the bicycle scene.

"Loop the Loop," as constructed for stage use by Tom Eek, Lotta Brandon will execute the feat. Fisher and Carroll, in Irish dialogue, will be the headliners in the "variety" features of the bill. There are twenty-five acts, including Anita, a fire dancer.

The Fifth Avenue stock company will revive Henry Arthur Jones' "Saints and Sinners." Press Elbridge and other good entertainers will keep things lively between the acts.

"Uncle Tom's Cabin" will undoubtedly mean crowded houses at the Fifty-eighth Street. There will also be the usual quota of vaudeville talent at this theatre.

The permanent stock company up in Hardey's "The American" with Charles Whiard in the title part, Charley Casar, monologist, and Werden and Shepard, song instructors, are in the vanedelle.

For the "twice daily" vaudeville over in Newark Mr. and Mrs. Mark May are in town. The Scotch Soda. There are many other acts on the bill, including the Marvelous Marills, expert cyclists, Ward and Curran, in "The Terrible Judge," and Cook and Clinton, women sharpshooters.

Sunday concerts as usual at the Proctor.

"Uncle Tom's Cabin" will undoubtably mean crowded houses at the Fifty-eighth Street. There will also be the usual quota of vaudeville talent at this theatre.

The permanent stock company up in Hardey's "The American" with Charles Whiard in the title part, Charley Casar, monologist, and Werden and Shepard, song instructors, are in the vanedelle.

For the "twice daily" vaudeville over in Newark Mr. and Mrs. Mark May are in town. The Scotch Soda. There are many other acts on the bill, including the Marvelous Marills, expert cyclists, Ward and Curran, in "The Terrible Judge," and Cook and Clinton, women sharpshooters.

Sunday concerts as usual at the Proctor.

Many Norman, the society caricaturist, is at the top of the bill for Keith's Union Square Theatre. Among the other features are Techo's troupe of performing cats, the three Yosefarras, acrobats; Cushman, Holcomb and Curtis in "The New Teacher," a musical sketch; John Kornell, the Irish comedian; Little Western, xylophone soloist; Leonia Thurber, pianist; the Paloma Ladies Quartet and Howard and Linder in a German comedy sketch.

James F. Dolan and Ida Lenhart, in a farce called "Taking Chances," will be seen at Tony Pastor's, this week. Belle Stewart will be there, too, assisted by Dave Fitzgibbons, the piano soloist. Other entertainers at this house will be All Hunter and A. Garroway, the "Giant Boys"; the singing and dancing comedians; the Crofty Girls, singers and dancers; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Young, in "A Home-spun Wedding," and the vitagraph.

Hyde's Comedians will spend the week at Hurst & Scanlon's Music Hall. A special feature will be Matic Keene and company in "Her First Divorce Case," written by Ethel Wheeler Nichols.

The colored pictures on the cinematograph are a great attraction at the Eden Musée. De Kolta, the wizard, will have a complete change of programme this week.

Many novelties and the usual variety of entertainment are offered at Huber's Museum.

"A Ragged Hero" is billed at the New Star.

Burlesque at the Dewey.

Concerts are announced for to-night at the New York Theatre, the American, the Grand Opera House, the Circle, the Third Avenue, the Harlem Opera House, the Metropolis and the Dewey.

"Lonely Lives," a drama by Gerhart Hauptmann, recently produced in Berlin, will be played at the Empire Theatre on Thursday afternoon by the American Academy of Dramatic Arts and the Empire Theatre Dramatic School.

Many clergymen have accepted invitations to attend the Wednesday matinees of "The Ninety and Nine" at the Academy of Music. The play continues in unabated popularity.

The Brooklyn Theatres.

"Quincy Adams Sawyer" will be presented at the Amphin Theatre this week.

The Columbia Theatre stock company will have a week of "Carmen."

Gora Tanner will be the leading entertainer at the Orpheum.

"A Messenger from Jarvis' Section" is held at Corse's Pavilion's Theatre.

There will be the usual high-class vaudeville show at Hyde & Whisman's.

"Mrs. Leslie Carter is playing "Du Barry" to all the folks the Montauk Theatre will

A Christmas Thought

THE KNABE

The personification of Piano perfection

WM. KNABE & CO.
154 FIFTH AVENUE,

Corner 20th Street

hold. Her engagement will continue for another week.

"Are You a Mason?" at the Folly.

"Uncle Tom's Cabin" at the Park.

"The Red Barn" at the Gotham.

"The Still Alarm" at the Bijou.

"The Great Potato Mystery" at Blaney's.

Burlesque at the Gayety.

Burlesque at the Star.

"Alphonse and Gaston" at the Grand Opera House.

Concerts to-night at Hyde & Whisman's, the Orpheum, the Columbi and the Gayety;

NOTES OF MUSIC EVENTS.

The soloists at the weekly concert at the Metropolitan Opera House to-night will be Miss. Gossak, Miss Bradshaw and Bass. The programme for the week is as follows: Monday, "Lila" with Mmes. Eames and Homer, Messrs. de Marchi, Scotti, and Reszka. Wednesday, "Proprietary" Miss. St. John, Helms, Miss. Tschirner, Morris, and Reszka. Thursday, "La Gioconda" with Mme. Schumann-Heink and Friday, "Tosca" Miss. Camas, Messrs. de Marchi and Scotti, and Saturday night with La Traviata" with Miss. Semirech. Saturday.

Cremona will give a concert at the Herald Square Theatre to-night. Selections from "William Ratcliffe" will be given.

"Jane" has been selected as the second attraction at the Circa Theatre. It will be put on to-morrow night with Bijou Fernandez in the title part, wherein Johnstone Bennett was continuing renown some years ago.

Creston Clarke, supported by the members of the Donnelly stock company, will play "Hamlet" at the Murray Hill this week.

The American Theatre players will be seen this week in "The Slaves of Russia," a melodrama which is new to this city. It deals in a spirited way with the details of Ninian Intrigue.

Chas. Ogleot will bid a reluctant farewell to the Fourteenth Street Theatre at the close of this week. His engagement there in "Old Limerick Town" has been notably prosperous. Joe Welch comes out of the vanedelle to star in "The Peddler" at this theatre next week.

Andrew Mack will appear again in "Tom Moore" at the Metropolis Theatre this week. He will sing some of the poet's most lovely ballads.

"A Montana Outlaw" promises strenuous doings at the Third Avenue Theatre this week. Davis M. Hartford assumes the principal role, that of Jack the Butcher. There's a stage coach in it.

The Four Cohans in "The Governor's Son" are billed at the new West End Theatre this week. Several of the latest musical hits have been introduced in this entertainment.

One of the Proctor theatres, the Twenty-third Street, will show for the first time in New York this week the bicycle scene.

"Loop the Loop," as constructed for stage use by Tom Eek, Lotta Brandon will execute the feat. Fisher and Carroll, in Irish dialogue, will be the headliners in the "variety" features of the bill. There are twenty-five acts, including Anita, a fire dancer.

The Fifth Avenue stock company will revive Henry Arthur Jones' "Saints and Sinners." Press Elbridge and other good entertainers will keep things lively between the acts.

"Uncle Tom's Cabin" will undoubtably mean crowded houses at the Fifty-eighth Street. There will also be the usual quota of vaudeville talent at this theatre.

The permanent stock company up in Hardey's "The American" with Charles Whiard in the title part, Charley Casar, monologist, and Werden and Shepard, song instructors, are in the vanedelle.

For the "twice daily" vaudeville over in Newark Mr. and Mrs. Mark May are in town. The Scotch Soda. There are many other acts on the bill, including the Marvelous Marills, expert cyclists, Ward and Curran, in "The Terrible Judge," and Cook and Clinton, women sharpshooters.

Sunday concerts as usual at the Proctor.

Many Norman, the society caricaturist, is at the top of the bill for Keith's Union Square Theatre. Among the other features are Techo's troupe of performing cats, the three Yosefarras, acrobats; Cushman, Holcomb and Curtis in "The New Teacher," a musical sketch; John Kornell, the Irish comedian; Little Western, xylophone soloist; Leonia Thurber, pianist; the Paloma Ladies Quartet and Howard and Linder in a German comedy sketch.

James F. Dolan and Ida Lenhart, in a farce called "Taking Chances," will be seen at Tony Pastor's, this week. Belle Stewart will be there, too, assisted by Dave Fitzgibbons, the piano soloist. Other entertainers at this house will be All Hunter and A. Garroway, the "Giant Boys"; the singing and dancing comedians; the Crofty Girls, singers and dancers; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Young, in "A Home-spun Wedding," and the vitagraph.

Hyde's Comedians will spend the week at Hurst & Scanlon's Music Hall. A special feature will be Matic Keene and company in "Her First Divorce Case," written by Ethel Wheeler Nichols.

The colored pictures on the cinematograph are a great attraction at the Eden Musée. De Kolta, the wizard, will have a complete change of programme this week.

Many novelties and the usual variety of entertainment are offered at Huber's Museum.

"A Ragged Hero" is billed at the New Star.

Burlesque at the Dewey.

Concerts are announced for to-night at the New York Theatre, the American, the Grand Opera House, the Circle, the Third Avenue, the Harlem Opera House, the Metropolis and the Dewey.

"Lonely Lives," a drama by Gerhart Hauptmann, recently produced in Berlin, will be played at the Empire Theatre on Thursday afternoon by the American Academy of Dramatic Arts and the Empire Theatre Dramatic School.

Many clergymen have accepted invitations to attend the Wednesday matinees of "The Ninety and Nine" at the Academy of Music. The play continues in unabated popularity.

The Brooklyn Theatres.

"Quincy Adams Sawyer" will be presented at the Amphin Theatre this week.

The Columbia Theatre stock company will have a week of "Carmen."

Gora Tanner will be the leading entertainer at the Orpheum.

"A Messenger from Jarvis' Section" is held at Corse's Pavilion's Theatre.

There will be the usual high-class vaudeville show at Hyde & Whisman's.

"Mrs. Leslie Carter is playing "Du Barry" to all the folks the Montauk Theatre will

AMUSEMENTS.

KNICKERBOCKER THEATRE

SECOND WEEK.

N. C. GOODWIN

MAXINE ELLIOTT

"If you are dull, Mr. Goodwin and Miss Elliott will banish the blues." — Herald.

THE ALTAR OF FRIENDSHIP

by Madame Lucile Grainger.

EXTRA MATINEES AT 12.30 AND 2.30 P.M.

SEASIDE AND LAND IN ADVANCE.

BROADWAY

28TH ST. & BROADWAY

ALL STARS

ALL STAR

ALL STAR